

Dear Starfish Parents,

Thank you for another lovely week with your special little ones.

Here are a few little notes and reminders for next week:

- Hats now must be worn by Kinder students while outside.
- Swimming will be on Sunday. Please remember to send their towels and footwear. These are required in case of fire drill or emergency.
- Ms. Tammara will be absent on Sunday for a PYP PD in Dubai. Ms. Riz will be well supported! 😊
- Please send your child to school on Sunday with a sock or two –We will be making sock puppets!
- If any of you would still like a long KG2-4C class photograph, I have one extra on order.

Enjoy your weekend! 😊
